

Name: _____

“Home” Brainstorm Guide

Answer the following questions based on the “home” you selected. Remember, “home” can be a person, food, place, situation, etc.

1) Tell me about your “home.” Is it a person, place, thing?

2) What are the feelings you associate with your “home?”

3) Why is it important/significant to you? What did it teach you about life/people/the world?

4) Create a map of your “home.” Tell me about the:

Setting:

Characters (2-3 traits per character including yourself!):

Central conflict/main event of your narrative (what happened to you and the other people in your narrative of “home?”):

Resolution: