First Encounter: As you read, pay attention to the following discussion questions.

- How do the characters' ages and environment impact their ideas about race?
- What do you know about both of these characters and their experiences?
- What are the most important elements of the main characters' relationship? What similarities do they share? How are they different?
- What are some examples of stereotypes that the characters have about each other or others have about them?

Twyla:	Roberta:
Direct Characterization: (direct quote; how it characterizes her)	Direct Characterization:
Indirect Characterization:	Indirect Characterization:

What questions did the first part of the story raise for you? What are you curious about?
•
•
•
What are two quotations that you want to talk about because you feel they're important or confusing? Pull two examples:
Quote #1: Pg
Quote #2:
Pg
Predictions: What are two things you think will happen next? Why?
1)
2)

Name:
HW: Read the Second Encounter (if you have not already done so) and fill the rest of this page answering the following questions in preparation for our discussion next class:
What do you know about both of these characters and their experiences since the last time they met?
 What questions did the second part of the story raise for you?
What are you curious about?
What patterns are you beginning to notice (repeated ideas, references, words etc)
 What are some examples of stereotypes, prejudice, or discrimination? 							